

School Board Invites Budget Advisory Committee Applications

The Budget Advisory Committee is an advisory body empowered by the Petersburg City School District Board of Education to provide input to the Superintendent regarding development of the budget. The Petersburg School Board and the Petersburg City Council are the budget approving bodies. The budget must conform to the requirements of State of Alaska statutes and regulations and be approved by the Alaska Department of Education.

The purpose of the Budget Advisory Committee is to examine anticipated revenue and assess the program needs of the district (personnel costs, materials and equipment costs, utility costs, debt payments, etc.). The Budget Advisory Committee assists the Superintendent in development of the operating budget for the 2010/2011 school year.

Petersburg City School District invites applications from the Petersburg City Council, the Associated Teachers of Petersburg, the Petersburg District Support Personnel Association, and "at large" representatives of the community. The Petersburg City School District Budget Advisory Committee will have 9 members:

- a representative from the Petersburg City Council
- a representative from the Associated Teachers of Petersburg
- a representative from the Petersburg District Support Personnel Association
- two "at large" members of the community
- two Petersburg City School District Board Members
- the Petersburg City School District Superintendent
- the Petersburg City School District Business Manager
